DAILY COURIER

BY W. N. HALDEMAN. OFFICE: 100 WEST JEFFERSON ST. Between Third and Fourth.

SATURDAY MORNING, -- APRIL 10, 1908.

LOUISVILLE and the Southern Trade

Trade of every kind which has been centered in Louisville since the close of the war has proven the devotion of the people of the South to the South and the people of the North to the North.

GRANT'S STRENGTH IN THE ELECTIONS

The Democratic Victory in Connecticut. When, last autumn, so much important election news was being received from the South, the people of the North were not without their own share of interest.

FROM MARCH COUNTY.

Amusement-Destruction of Fruit-Tree. A large number of fruit trees in March County, Kentucky, have been destroyed by a severe frost.

Large Fines.

In the matter of professional fees, the courts of the State have recently rendered decisions which will result in large fines being levied on certain practitioners.

The "Prose" Celebration.

We hope that Louisville will have a large and successful "Prose" celebration, which is being planned for the near future.

General Thomas's Correspondence of the Committee.

CRITICISM OF GENERAL THOMAS.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Mr. Curtis concluded his argument today in the Senate chamber, before the committee on the case of General Thomas.

Mr. Curtis, who was assisted by Mr. Thomas, who was also present, made a strong case for the general, who was charged with the murder of General Grant.

Mr. Curtis argued that the general was not guilty of the crime, and that the charges against him were unfounded.

He also argued that the general was a brave and patriotic soldier, and that he should be acquitted.

Mr. Curtis's argument was well received by the committee, and he was given a strong rebuke by the managers of the case.

Mr. Curtis's argument was also well received by the public, and he was given a strong rebuke by the managers of the case.

Mr. Curtis's argument was also well received by the public, and he was given a strong rebuke by the managers of the case.

40th CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION.

SENATE, April 10.—WASHINGTON, April 10.

After the chair was vacated for the day, the Senate adjourned until tomorrow.

Mr. Curtis's argument was well received by the committee, and he was given a strong rebuke by the managers of the case.
